

Massolino 2009 Barolo Parussi

Score: 91 pts

Serralunga D'alba, Piedmont, Italy

Massolino's 2009 Barolo Parussi brings together many of the best qualities of the vintage. The aromatics are bright and focused, yet at the same time, there is plenty of depth to the fruit. Sweet, layered and beautifully articulated, the 2009 Parussi stands out for its balance and overall harmony. First yet integrated tannins support the brisk, inviting finish. Today, the Parussi is the brightest of Massolino's 2009 Barolos.
