

Massolino 2009 Barolo Margheria

Score: 92 pts

Serralunga D'alba, Piedmont, Italy

The 2009 Barolo Margheria is racy, delineated and energetic. Sweet red berries, flowers, mint and licorice from the glass. There is an attractive juiciness in the Margheria. I imagine the 2009 will drink well relatively early, but also develop nicely in bottle. Rose petals, dried herbs, violets and tar are all layered into the finish.

Drinking window: 2013 – 2017

— Antonio Galloni, May 2013